- + You've been the victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, and/or stalking.
- + If you are not sure if you are eligible, ask.

WHERE DO I GET AN ORDER OF PROTECTION?

Go to the Circuit Clerk's office at the County Courthouse and they will give you a petition to fill out. You may file this in the county where you live, where you were abused, or where your abuser can be found.

WHEN CAN I FILE MY PETITION?

On weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Circuit Clerk's Office; In the evening or on the weekend at the local police station if it is an emergency situation.

WHAT SHOULD I PUT IN MY PETITION?

- + Tell why you need an order of protection.
- + Tell what help you want.
- + Give dates/details of the abuse, including any injuries.
- + Explain why you are in danger right now.
- + Be sure to fill out the whole form.

PLEASE NOTE

- + You do not need to write your address on your petition or say it in court if you are afraid to let your abuser know where you live.
- + Your abuser will receive a copy of your petition with all information contained in it, including your contact information and what you said happened.
